The

MOUND

1953

Fairmont State College :: Fairmont, West Virginia

Off to the Parade!

College in itself has an intrinsic rhythm not to be found anywhere else in life. In this, our 1952-53 Mound, we have tried to capture that rhythm with all its humor, action, and artistry with our musical theme. We hope you enjoy our results.

The Mound Staff

Dedication.....

To Miss Bessie K. Crystal

To Miss Bessie K. Crystal, who for the past twenty-four years has served the students of Fairmont State College as a teacher, advisor, and friend, we dedicate this musical edition of the 1953 Mound. Although Miss Crystal is retiring from active teaching, her endless patience and understanding will be remembered by her students as they recall their years in her classroom and life on the hill.

Miss Crystal, who came to West Virginia from Missouri, is a graduate of Kirksville State Teachers College where she received a B. S. degree. She then received her A. M. from the University of Missouri. Since coming to Fairmont State in 1929 she has taught civics, West Virginia history and American history, for which she will best be remembered by her students.

Wishing you a very happy future and thanking you for the many happy hours in your classroom, we the staff, and students of 1953 join with those of the past and dedicate this Mound to you as a remembrance of a job well done.

Medley . . . .

Our Conductor . . .

Conducting the affairs at Fairmont State is President John W. Pence. Although President Pence has been a member of the faculty since 1926 this was his first year as president. During his career at the college he has served as dean of men, dean of the college, and acting president.

To President Pence, who has been a symbol and inspiration to all, we wish much happiness and success in the future years as conductor of Fairmont State College.

. . . and Concert Master

Dean George R. Hunt, who has been a member of the staff since 1921, is also newly appointed dean of the college. Dean Hunt, who solves problems each day for the students of Fairmont State, is a friend and advisor to all. He has served as member of the faculty and as registrar during his career at the college.

Who's Who

THESE TWELVE SENIORS who were chosen to represent the school in the national publication, Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, have shown abilities in cooperation and leadership all through their college years. They were chosen because of their academic records, their service to the school, their citizenship, and their promise of future success in the world.

Blazers

TO BE ELECTED a member of the Blazers is an honor every senior girl looks forward to as a grand finale. Each year outstanding senior girls are elected to this honorary women's organization. The Blazers serve as head counselors for counselor's camp each year. Here the chosen counselors are given instructions for the senior day and registration day activities. They assist the freshmen in finding their way about the campus and in helping them get accustomed to college life. The Blazers is a comparatively new group on the campus, but is looked at by all the girls as a goal for their senior year.

Juniors

THE JUNIOR CLASS is one of the most active on the Hill. Annually the juniors sponsor the Junior-Senior prom, one of the highlights of the year. This year the prom was one of the most successful and will be remembered by all the students. With all their enthusiasm the students are looking forward to their senior year and all of its activities and honors.

THE SOPHOMORE CLASS sponsored one of the most successful Dad's Day parades this year, and closed the annual event with a dance. This year there were several bands and about fifteen floats entered in the parade.. Following the parade, there was the annual football game, where the Falcons met and defeated Salem. The event was closed with a dance from 9 to 12 with Ray Vingle and his orchestra. Conductor for the day was Sophomore class president, Robert Taylor.

Carrying out the annual Dad's Day activities, the sophomore class sponsored one of the most successful in recent years. The Gamma Chi Chi float was chosen for highest honors with the Fairmont Senior High School band topping the musical activities. Trophies were presented to the winners and the Gamma Chi Chi will long remember their win for it entitled them to keep the float trophy.

Floats were entered by various organizations on the hill and the following pages will show the winning float and the others entered.

Layman Heads Yearbook Staff

The yearbook staff is headed by Elizabeth Layman and includes John Frost, assistant editor; Anna Jean Wilson, copy; Eleanor Hall, copy assistant; Lee Hefner, feature; Zelma Brooks, make-up; Patti Nixon, photographs; Armond Donofrio, sports and Dave Bischof, business manager.

Vin Vangtal has been appointed to the Mound staff as Art Editor. The staff is very grateful for the work he has already accomplished, and the outlook for the book is excellent. Vin has done art work at the college and is well known by the students already for his work.

Armond Donofrio Is Editor For Second Semester Staff

New editor for The Columns for the second semester will be Armond Donofrio, according to Prof. C. R. House, adviser. Editor for the first semester is Joan Fenton.

This follows a plan of rotation, the purpose of which is to give as many journalism students as possible the experience of editing a college newspaper, Mr. House pointed out.

"This plan not only gives more students experience, but it also, when noted on an application for a job, helps the student in that area," Mr. House added.

Gamma Chi Chi

Gamma Chi Chi, founded in 1927, is the oldest sorority on the hill. Some of its annual activities include the Founder's Day banquet, Mother's Day banquet, the Tallow Tea honoring the faculty and staff, and the spring formal dinner-dance. The sorority maintains a trophy case in the main hall for the benefit of the student body.

Officers of the sorority are Waneila Fisher, president; Nancy Thompson, first vice-president; Eleanor Bennett, second vice-president; Marie Murrin, secretary; Joan Latham, treasurer; and Beverly Banko, sergeant-at-arms. Miss Mary B. Price and Mrs. Lawrence Wallman are advisors, with Mrs. Wilford Wilson, Mrs. John T. Evans, Miss Anne Barry, and Miss Blanche Price as sponsors.

Tau Beta Iota

The Tau Beta Iota is the only local fraternity on the campus, but is one of the largest fraternal organizations. The TBI sponsored the Barnyard Shuffle, Sweetheart dance, at which time Miss Nelda Summers was crowned sweetheart of the TBI, and the Spring Formal. The group also participated in the Dad's Day parade by entering a float and presenting the winning band with a trophy for the day's activities.

Officers for the year were: president, Jack Carter; vice-president, Bob Ewald; secretary, Walter Phillips; treasurer, Ralph Inghram; sergeant-at-arms, Danny Samples; chaplain, Bob Kaunike. Mr. Cleo Haught is faculty advisor along with Mr. Paul Davisson.

Strike Up the Band!

THE FAIRMONT State Band, newly organized under the direction of Richard Montague, gave spirit and enthusiasm to the activities on the hill in the 1952-53 season. The band made its first appearance at the dedication of the new library, and followed with the Dad's Day activities. The group also played for football and basketball games throughout the year.

During the concert season the band appeared at high schools throughout the county, gave an assembly, and appeared on Campus Highlights. Assistant student director was Don Hamilton, with Alfred Uvages acting as president. The group has promise of being one of the most successful in the history of the school.

F. S. C. Choir

THE FAIRMONT State College Choir, under the direction of John Thomas Evans, with Mrs. Paul Donham as accompanist, is one of the most outstanding groups on the campus. The choir has given several concerts at the local high schools, and presented its annual spring concert at the college. Students are eligible for the choir through audition each semester.

Morrow Hall

THE CAMPUS residence for out-of-town girls at Fairmont State is Morrow Hall. This building is located at the upper end of the campus above the Science Hall. The girls are very active in social activities on the "hill" and hold open house each semester. At this time all fellows are invited and entertained by the ladies. Mrs. Anna Herndon is the house mother.

Our New Library . .

THE NEW LIBRARY above pictured features air conditioning, audio-visual room, lecture rooms, and separate studying rooms. The building consists of three floors all of which are for student use. The total floor space is about six times that of the old library and was estimated at a cost of $432,000. Installed equipment was estimated to cost about $350,000. It is one of the most modern buildings in the state and is the pride and joy of F. S. C.

FAIRMONT State's athletic program is headed by Wilford "Squib" Wilson, who is serving his first year as athletic director. He succeeds Jasper H. Colebank who retired last year after serving 28 years on the college faculty. Wilson, a former Falcon athlete, previously served as head football, basketball and baseball coach.

Paul C. Davis replaces Wilson as head basketball coach and also serves as track coach, intramural director and assistant football coach. Dr. C. A. Lindley continues as tennis coach, a job he has held for several years. Gene Rogers begins his second year as golf coach, a job he took during the '52 year.

Women's athletics are under the direction of Nell Walters and Ann Barry.

Sports publicity is under the direction of Galen Kyre.

Fairmont State's athletic program provides facilities for participation in intramural and intercollegiate athletics.

W. V. I. C. Champions . . . . . .

FAIRMONT STATE'S Maroon and White football team under the guidance of their new head coach, Harold "Deacon" Duvall, compiled the most successful record in the school's history. Not only did they go undefeated in six games but they also won the West Virginia Inter-Collegiate Conference Championship. It was the first such title that Fairmont has ever won.

Featuring a hard charging line and a well balanced backfield the Falcons rolled over five conference foes and one outside the loop. Spearheading the attack were three All-Conference performers, Dale Hounshell, guard, the smallest man on the conference team; Clem Dawson, tackle, the largest man on the team; and Jim Cherocci, fullback, and a leading scorer in the conference.

Birmingham

● STARTING their championship drive, the Falcons breezed by Glenville 26-6. Exploding for three touchdowns in the first half, Fairmont scored a last period marker to sew up the game. Jim Cherocci scored three touchdowns and played an outstanding game on defense. Hartsell Dodrill scored the other T. D. Jim DeFlorio kick 2 out of 4 extra points.

The following week, West Liberty's 11-year domination of Fairmont State came to a sudden halt, as the Falcons ground out a convincing 33-13 victory. It was sweet revenge for Fairmont, who in 1949 took a 47-6 shellacking at Moundsville. The Falcons spotted West Liberty a first period touchdown, but then unleashed a furious ground assault led by Jim Cherocci, Hartsell Dodrill, and Jim Miller. Fairmont led at half time 26-7. Scoring the Falcons' touchdowns were: Cherocci, two; Miller, Dodrill, and Morton, one each. DeFlorio kicked two extra points and Miller ran one.

Dawson

Traveling to Athens, the Falcons barely nosed out Concord 21-19 for their third loop win. The accurate toe of Jim DeFlorio provided the margin of victory as he booted 3 for 3 extra points. The Falcons scored three touchdowns in the first half and then staved off a second half Mountain Lion rally which fell 3 points short. Getting the maroon and white T. D.'s were: Jim Miller, two, and Jim Cherocci, one.

KEEPING their record clean, the Falcons rolled to an easy 32-7 victory over Salem before 2,500 fans in the annual Dad's Day game at Rosier Field. Leading only 13-7 at half time, the Falcons stormed back with 19 points the last two periods while holding the Tigers scoreless. Crossing the Salem goal for T. D.'s were: Jim Cherocci, twice; Jim Miller, Hartsell Dodrill, and Allen Frazee, once each. Jim DeFlorio kicked two extra points.

Continuing to roll along the Falcons, after being held scoreless the first half, scored 6 points in the third quarter and 19 more in the final period to overwhelm Davis-Elkins 25-6. This was the fifth conference win and assured Fairmont the conference championship. It was a tight ball game during the first two periods, with both lines showing exceptional power. But in the third period Blaine Morton on a beautiful quarterback sneak, went all the way for the Falcons' first score. Fairmont then broke the game wide open in the final period as Jim Cherocci scored twice and Allen Frazee caught a touchdown pass. Don Seay ran for the game's only extra point.

In the final game, the Falcons nipped California 7-0 to finish the season undefeated. It was a defensive battle between the two forward walls. Blaine Morton scored the game's only touchdown. Jim DeFlorio kicked the extra point. Altogether the Falcons scored 144 points while holding the opposition to 51. Jim Cherocci led the Falcon attack scoring 10 touchdowns. Miller followed with 4, Dodrill got 3, Morton 2, and Frazee 2. With most of the squad back, the Falcons should be tough next year.

Basketball . . .

FAIRMONT STATE'S basketball team, under the leadership of their new coach, Paul "Pi" Davis, finished the season with a record of 9 wins and 13 defeats. Hit hard by graduation and by the armed services, Coach Davis had only three returning lettermen from last year's squad. The rest of the team consisted of freshmen and returning servicemen.

The Falcons started the season by dropping three straight games, all away from home. Losing a one-sided game to Glenville 88-68, they battled a superior Wesleyan team to a standstill before losing 79-70. The third defeat came at the hands of Alderson-Broaddus 88-79. Without knowing it, this team was to be Fairmont's jinx team. Not only did they beat the maroon and white twice during the regular season, they also eliminated the Falcons from the W. V. I. C. Tournament. Fairmont's first win came at the expense of Davis-Elkins 84-77 at Colebank Gym. They followed this up by downing California 90-72.

On the road again, the Falcons were dropped by A. B. again 79-66, and then lost a return game to California 72-64. Winning from Potomac State 84-76, the Falcons went on a five game losing streak. In order they were dropped by Salem, 76-68; Davis-Elkins, 82-76 in a return game; and again by Salem, 97-91.

Fairmont then had the biggest score of the season run up against them as West Liberty overwhelmed them 113-87. Maybe it was with this score in mind and seeking revenge that the Falcons upset West Liberty later in the season. The fifth loss was inflicted by Bethany 95-66 and in a return game, the Davismen started a winning streak of their own by beating the same Bethany, 81-71. It was at this time that the combination of McKinney, Charleton, Schamp, Morton, and Moreman began to click. The Falcons rolled over Glenville 82-63, upset West Liberty 70-68, and climaxed the regular season play by walloping Beckley 104-92.

In this game Dick Schamp scored 45 points to set a new single game scoring record. The Falcon string was broken by Potomac State 89-78.

Playing before a packed house, the Falcons dropped a Homecoming game to West Virginia Wesleyan 80-75, to close the season.

In the first round of the tournament, Fairmont defeated Davis-Elkins 92-82. It was a nip and tuck affair all the way with the Falcons spurting to a ten point lead at the close of the game.

Dick Schamp led the Fairmont attack as he poured in 46 points to set a new single game tournament record. The season's climax came when the Falcons upset West Virginia Tech 60-58. Tech, who had tied Morris Harvey for the regular season conference title, was seeded number one, and was co-favorite to win the tournament.

In the semi-finals, Fairmont after two superb performances went down before the Battlers from Alderson-Broaddus 88-69. Schamp's outstanding play in the tournament earned him a unanimous berth on the All-Tournament team. Nick Moreman was accorded honorable mention.

Track . . .

TRACK is the newest sport to be added to the athletic program at Fairmont State. 1953 will be the first year that the newly constructed track will be available to Coach Davis and his thinclads. In addition to the mile long cinder track surrounding the athletic field, facilities are also available for the pole vault, high jump, broad jump, and shot put. The new facilities make it possible for State to host several high school meets in addition to the collegiate schedule. Returning lettermen and the added interest shown by incoming frosh make the outlook for the future a bright one.

Splashers . . .

SPLASHERS is the club for all girls on the hill who like to swim. This year the group put on a water show on April 13 called "April Showers." The Student Body enjoyed the show so much that the girls are going to try to have one every year.

Golf . . .

THE GOLF TEAM is coached by Gene Rogers and competes against other teams in the West Virginia Inter-Collegiate Conference. The annual conference tournament held at Oglebay Park each spring provides opportunity for the Falcon golfers to vie for conference honors. The Falcons play their home matches at the Fox Hill links.

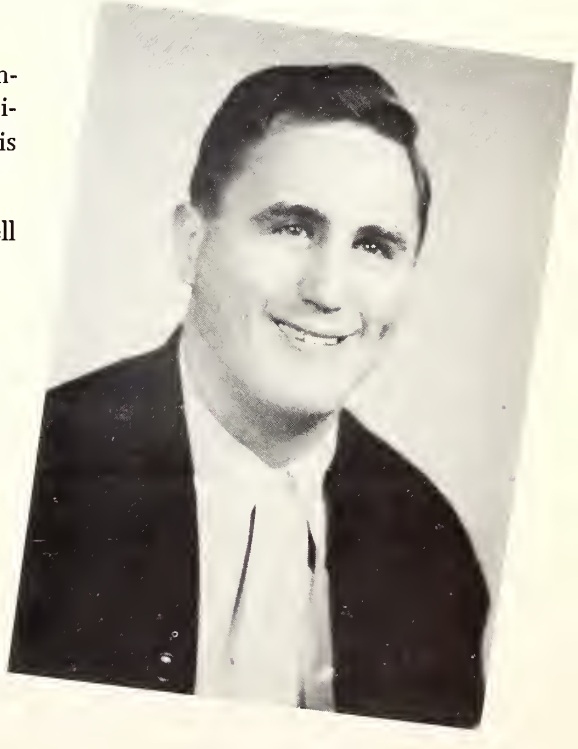
Yea team, say team . . .

We sometimes overlook the reasons for a winning team. The individuals pictured on this page are two of the reasons for the success of the athletic teams at Fairmont this year. Pictured above are the four students responsible for promoting "the old school spirit." Our cheerleaders are Jack Belt, Lee Hefner, Dot White and Clara Fooks.

The chap at the right might well be called trainer, manager, and right-hand man. Manager Leo Gower is responsible for the equipment used by all the athletic teams and his duties extend over the entire year.

To these individuals we say "nice going" for a job well done!



let's go,
let's fight,
let's win!

Woman's Hockey

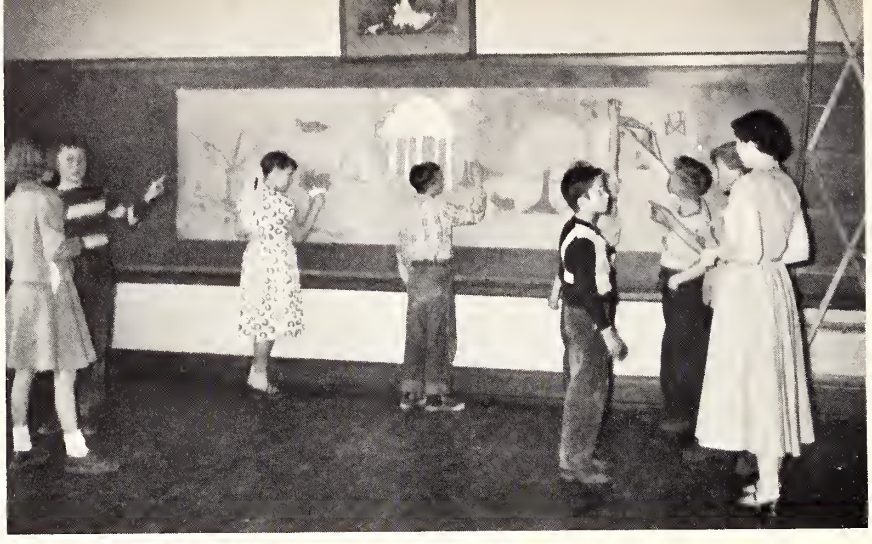
HERE'S the success song on the Fairmont State College campus this year. It was written by students who won the Mound popularity contest. The lyrics go like this—Most beautiful woman, Joan Hollen; most handsome man, Joe Retton; best dancers, Mary Wolfe and Jim Miller; peppiest, Connie Price and Leo Gower; friendliest, Charlie Williams and Bill Judy; best athletes, Marietta Hervatin and Blaine Morton; best actress, Ellen Sullivan; best actor, Joe Speer; cutest couple, Jackie Sandeau and Jim Zukosky; most likely to succeed, La Donna Jenkins and "Skip" Morgan; most beneficial to school, Phoebe Schroeder and "Skip" Morgan; Miss and Mr. Emily Post, Sue Jeffries and Vin Vangtal.



Elementary Teaching

A Bright Road Ahead . . . Finale

EVEN as the campus road to the athletic field symbolized a bright and happy life during their years at Fairmont, may the road of life ahead prove to be a bright and happy one for those who are graduating.

THANKS go to our advertisers who helped us bring this musical review to a crescendo and to our audience who read the score. We hope you enjoyed the show.
